

A close-up portrait of a woman with dark hair, wearing traditional Indian jewelry including a large teardrop-shaped forehead ornament (maang tikka), a nose ring (nath), a large gold earring, a multi-strand gold necklace, and a large circular ring. She is holding two large, variegated green leaves in front of her face, partially obscuring her eyes and nose. She is wearing an orange sari with a green and pink floral border. The background is a soft, out-of-focus outdoor setting.
