A woman with long brown hair and a bright smile is standing in a rustic, arched stone doorway. She is wearing a vibrant orange long-sleeved top and a matching full-length skirt. The top features a central vertical line of blue and yellow geometric embroidery. The skirt has a horizontal line of similar embroidery near the hem. A teal shawl with a light green border and gold-colored stripes is draped over her shoulders. She is wearing black high-heeled shoes. The background is a dark, textured stone wall with a large arched opening. To the right, a large terracotta pot is visible.
