

A woman with long, wavy brown hair is seated on an ornate, dark wooden chair. She is wearing a vibrant green saree with a wide, patterned border in shades of gold, red, and green. The blouse is also green with a matching floral and geometric pattern. She is adorned with traditional Indian jewelry, including a large, ornate necklace, matching earrings, a bangle, and rings. Her right hand is resting near her chin, and her left hand is resting on her lap. The background is a dark, textured wall with some decorative elements.
