

A woman is shown from the chest up, wearing a light beige or gold-toned sari with intricate floral embroidery. The sari has a green border with a repeating pattern. She is adorned with extensive traditional Indian jewelry: a large, ornate headpiece (mukuta) with red and gold elements, a crescent-shaped nose ring (nath) with a green gemstone, large pearl and gold earrings, a multi-strand pearl necklace with a central red gemstone, and a chain (choker) around her neck. She has her eyes closed and a gentle smile. Her right hand, with bright blue nail polish, is visible near her chest. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.
