A woman with long, wavy brown hair is smiling and standing in front of a large wooden door with multiple glass panes. She is wearing a black, off-the-shoulder, long-sleeved dress with a white polka-dot pattern. The dress has a textured, possibly sequined, band across the chest and matching bands at the cuffs. She is also wearing a gold chain necklace, several bangles on her left wrist, and rings on her fingers. She holds a small black clutch bag in her left hand. She is wearing gold-colored, strappy high-heeled sandals. To her left, there is a wooden bench with a basket of pink and purple flowers. The background includes a wooden door with glass panes and some decorative items hanging on the wall.
