

A woman with dark, wavy hair is seated, wearing a vibrant yellow and orange saree with a subtle pattern. She is adorned with traditional Indian jewelry, including a large, ornate silver necklace with multiple tiers and tassels, matching earrings, and a wide silver bangle on her right wrist. Her hands are resting on her lap, and she has red nail polish. The background is a soft, textured wall with warm, bokeh-style lighting. To the right, a wire birdcage with pink flowers is partially visible.
