"I think we all know boldness when we see it. Nothing makes me smile more than when I see someone being fully themselves, with their own individual style and character, whatever that is."

"A woman's sari should be like a barbed-wire fence: serving its purpose without obstructing the

I don't like to produce things in a factory. It seems artificial. If produce must, I have to work with it and learn. I don't like working with a lot of people. I like the freedom of being creative.

"As a woman gets older, it's more about style than fashion. A woman knowing herself more and more, and looking for new things, is getting into her own personal style, being more than just a fashion addict. I'm interested in that."

"Anyone can get dressed up and glamorous, but it is how people saare in their days off that are the most intriguing."
